Mr. W. J. Cramer, formerly of this town but now of Longwood, Florida recently wrote to the Carbondale Leader as follows: "We are raising a better class of pincapples here than I ever saw in Pennsylvania markets. I was through a pinery at our county seat about two weeks ago that was set in September, 1896, and has the first crop fruit on now, and many of them were 12 to 14 inches long and 6 to 8 in diameter. I did not see one cull pine in the whole field nor one anywhere near mature that would weigh less than six pounds and from that to ten pounds. It costs about $16 per acre to nt the ground and set the plants and build a shed over them. This year the first crop was estimated to be worth $3,500, and the shed and plants were left for future crops. The pineapple industry here in Orange county is likely to surpass the orange crop in its est days before the freezes of 1895 and
